

Moments: Sample Scenes and TOC

Table of Contents (here's what you can expect from the book)

Introduction

- The Challenges of Teaching Acting
- The Solution: Flexible Scenes
- Notes on Moments: Flexible Scenes for Two or Three Actors

Chapter One: How to Use Flexible Scenes

- Using Flexible Scenes in an Acting Class
  - Assess Your Students
  - The Actor's Process
  - Working with Relationships
  - Working with Truthful Moments

Chapter Two: Method for Teaching Actors

- Teaching Novice Actors
  - Warm ups and Improvisation
  - Introduce Acting Basics
  - Select Flexible Scenes
  - Define Given Circumstances
  - Define Objectives and Stakes
  - Begin Scene Work
  - Address Common Issues
  - Presentation and Class Discussion
- Teaching Intermediate Actors
  - Body and Voice
  - Review Fundamentals
  - Select Longer Flexible Scenes
  - Side Coaching
  - Options and Exercises

Chapter Three: Method for Teaching Directors

- Common Problems
- Method for Novice Directors
- Further Study

Chapter Four: Scenes for Two Actors

Chapter Five: Scenes for Three Actors

Appendix: Scene Suggestions

Sample Scene 2

A: Hang on

B: Out of my way please

A: What's your hurry

B: I want this done

A: Can we talk about it

B: We did This is the part that comes after the talking

A: Then can we just take a moment to breathe

B: I'll breathe better when this is done

A: You're going way too fast

B: We talked We decided Now we do the work

A: Oh for god's sake

B: Are you going to help me

A: No

B: What do you mean no

A: I want to talk more

B: Why

A: Because I don't want this I don't know why you do

B: I don't

A: You don't

B: Not really

A: Then put that down and let's do the talking part again

Sample Scene 41

A: Hurry up

B: I can't

A: Yes you can

B: I need a minute

A: You don't have one

B: I don't hear anything

A: They're not far

B: How do you know

A: Because I know

B: You've done this before

A: A few years back

B: What

A: A different place

B: Why didn't you tell me

A: It wasn't important

B: You failed

A: Yes

B: And you didn't think that was important

A: No

B: I trusted you

A: It was just bad luck

B: What did they do to you

A: It doesn't matter

B: Oh my god

A: Look I learned a lot from that

B: What was I thinking

A: I know what to do this time

B: I never should have listened to you

A: It's too late now Come on

B: What choice do I have

A: Not much

B: Well then let's go

A: I'm coming

B: Hurry up

A: No

Hello Instructors!

If these scenes are helpful and you want to learn more about how to use them in class, sign up for more free downloads, news and updates at barbrafrench.com/contact. As a bonus, until November 15th, if you order Moments: 75 Flexible Scenes for Two or Three Actors (paperback), you'll receive an instant download of the ebook for FREE. Order today at stagespublishing.ca. Questions? Drop me a line!

Barbra French
barbrafrench.com/contact